GNAW @ IN THE SOIL

This year, Myer's Masked Marauders were granted the wonderful opportunity to perform their award winning fringe production of "GNAW" by Sean Meldrum at the "In the Soil" Arts Festival. They will perform this Hansel and Gretel-esque, fractured fairytale at the Performing Arts Centre on April 28th at 6pm. To purchase tickets go online to the First Ontario Performing Arts Centre, click on April theatre events and scroll down to GNAW. This production will definitely give you something to chew on.

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

Mr. Fernandez has even constructed a cardboard donkey head for the character "Bottom" to wear. Come on out to witness the hard work that the cast, Ms. Garratt, and Ms. Straitton have been putting in to this Shakespeare in the Park production. Performances will be taking place May 29th and 30th in our beautiful courtyard. Stay tuned for ticket info!!!
